How can i contact emirates by phone

From the moment I called to say I wanted to book a holiday, they went through options and packages and helped us decide which hotel to stay. We particularly liked the beach area, I would like to say thank you to Binon & Panka for looking after us so well. No white wine on trolley, stewardess promised a glass later, but was one hour later!!!!Have had many Emirates flights and several Emirates holidays, but this one disappointing @Date of experience: March 26, 2025Mixed emotions, paid nearly 6k for flights to Vietnam via Dubai, the A380 was the most amazing experience, but the other leg of the journey, both ways on the 777 was awful, my tv only worked for the last half hour, I did use my own phone and earphones for a couple of hours but when I came to use the tv it just kept loading up, 2 off the staff tried and it just would not work, I was offered to move but it was to a middle seat and I'd booked an end as I do t like middle seats, so had to use my own entertainment on the way to Vietnam on the 777, not great when you've paid so much money, then on the way back to the uk again in the 777 leg the seat would not stay up at the end, it kept dropping down, the guy on the flight did try but ended up putting a bag underneath to stop it moving, I mean you pay 6k for flights and you have to put a bag under the seat to stop it dropping, to be fair at the end of the flight I was offered some aftershave which I accepted, but when you think you've paid 6k you don't expect these issues at all, it's a shame as the staff are amazing but working with a terrible plane (777), I wished I had not took anything as it don't feel right, I think anyone who books business class snd the flight is the 777 please don't !! Save your money Date of experience: March 23, 2025Everything was seamless from the chauffeur drive to the lounge to the hotel. Also, the service on the return flight on Emirates was not very good, it was two hours before we were even offered a drink.Date of experience: March 21, 2025Flew Business Class. Date of experience: March 22, 2025Just returned from 4 nights staying at the Grand Hyatt in Dubai. The food was incredible and restaurant standard!!!! Thank you Date of experience: April 01, 2025We booked a late holiday with Emirates and cannot fault the service we received from the booking process, documentation, quality of the aircraft through to an excellent hotel. Reps available in airport to guide us to transport, lovely hotel, very friendly staff. We only had breakfast in the hotel, as we choose to eat out, but the choice and selection was amazing, the space and legroom on the aircraft was impressive. Check the location and opening hours of our offices worldwide. Find out how much baggage and luggage you can take on board, and learn all about our baggage rules. Data doświadczenia: 02 kwietnia 2025Quality and reliability are the main factors I consider when booking Emirates holidays of flights. No way to change the holiday package on the emirates app, only to ring up and they rack up the fees! Never knew Emirates would do such a thing, well finally I have found out. ansari the waiter at pool bar made it his mission to serve us whatever we wanted bringing to our sunbed or beach lounger. We were made to feel like a burden, not paying customers. A lovely experience altogether.Data doświadczenia: 15 marca 2025My wife and I are just back from a five-day (should have made it eight days) holiday in Mauritius booked via Emirates Holiday. Know the ... food was below average for Dubai standards - restaurants very chaotic.Return flight not so good. food is so good every single restaurant we went too we loved it. Never booking again. Great service, from check in at Glasgow to being dropped off at the excellent Fairmont Ajman Hotel everything went so smoothly. Based on our experience we would recommend Emirates holidays.Date of experience: April 01, 2025Title: Extremely Disappointed - Emirates Treats Economy Passengers with DisdainI travelled with my wife and two young daughters (aged 5 and 10) on a holiday booked through Emirates Holidays — and the experience was appalling from start to finish.We simply asked to amend the booking by 24 hours, but Emirates staff were rigid, unhelpful, and at times outright rude. Can't wait to return.Date of experience: March 27, 2025Flight out to Dubai excellent. Lady on the phone, very unhelpful. On the day of travel, gate staff made sarcastic comments like, "Nice try, better luck next time."There was no duty-free service on board, and no explanation was provided.The most disappointing part was how Emirates treated us as Economy Class passengers — with zero respect or courtesy. Same with the return journey.Our third holiday with Emirates (twice to Dubai, once to Mauritius) and wouldn't hesitate to recommend them.Looking forward to our next trip.Data doświadczenia: 21 marca 2025Extremely unhappy that we have always booked Dubai via emirates holidays many many times. However, the hotel was a disappointment - The W on The Palm. The hotel rooms are very spacious and luxurious. A lovely experience altogether.Date of experience: March 15, 2025My wife and I are just back from a five-day (should have made it eight days) holiday in Mauritius booked via Emirates Holiday. Date of experience: April 01, 2025Returned last Friday from 6 nights in Dubai, which was our first visit. the all inclusive is just that had food and drinks all day. I've found their service extremely reliable, the planes superb and the staff lovely. Despite repeated attempts to upgrade our flights from Economy to Premium Economy or Business Class — weeks before departure, over the phone, and at the airport — we were blocked at every turn. The only small thing I can think of is that we were not informed about pick up time for our return.Data doświadczenia: 03 kwietnia 2025From the minute we landed a rep was waiting smiling to welcome me and my three daughters. Data doświadczenia: 22 marca 2025Just returned from 4 nights staying at the Grand Hyatt in Dubai. The A380 and A350 were comfortable and the entertainment system was fabulous. The flights were punctual and the aircraft clean and well equipped. First time we have ever made a mistake and we now understand your customer service. all the staff without exception are so friendly and helpful always checking if we are ok.the only downside is the loud music at night as i like to go to bed early but might not affect most people Data doświadczenia: 26 marca 2025I've flown with Emirates around 40 times, half of that Business Class. The staff at every point on our journey were amazing.Date of experience: March 17, 2025Thanks to Emirates my friend and I thoroughly enjoyed ourselves celebrating my 60th in Dubai. The pool area was fantastic and all staff were brilliant. The one time a customers make a small mistake while booking, they get penalised pretty badly. We had no issues on either flights and the service, drinks and food choice where great. all the staff without exception are so friendly and helpful always checking if we are ok.the only downside is the loud music at night as i like to go to bed early but might not affect most people Date of experience: March 26, 2025I've flown with Emirates around 40 times, half of that Business Class. It's a beautiful hotel just 10 minutes from the metro station. The whole experience was superb. The Hotel Ambre was spot on, and the in-country support was excellent. This retail office is currently closed, please call us instead until further notice. Booked a superior family room for the Grand Hyatt Dubai - advertised as x2 double beds in the room.Arrived with x2 young children after very long day travelling to find only one double bed in the room, and enough towels for two people.After numerous trips back and forwards to reception (the phone in the room didn't work) - we came back after our meal to find only one extra single bed had been placed in the room.The manager refused to move us, despite there being rooms available (as advertised).It was past 11pm by the time we managed to get to bed.Data doświadczenia: 08 kwietnia 2025The whole process was smooth from start to finish. Can't wait to return.Data doświadczenia: 27 marca 2025Flight out to Dubai excellent. the hotel receptionist was very friendly and polite one room was ready (we had interconnecting) so could change to swimwear straight away. When travelling with two small children, that attitude is inexcusable. This was not the standard of service I expected from a premium airline. International rates apply. Data doświadczenia: 01 kwietnia 2025Returned last Friday from 6 nights in Dubai, which was our first visit. The room was a bit glitzy for our taste, and pool area very noisy with constant loud music, which got louder as the day wore on. We flew with Emirates from Stansted as it's very local to us, flights both ways were great, no complaints apart from not being able to connect to the WiFi but it's not the end of the world.We stayed at The Grand Hyatt which was wonderful, would definitely stay again, staff were fabulous and couldn't do enough for you, we were half board plus which gave us two hours of alcoholic drinks each night, the food on the restaurants was delicious lots of choice,we did eat out a couple of nights as well. All Emirates staff that we encountered were courteous, helpful and professional. We were kept informed and updated always. My own sort of complaint was that when we booked the hotel, it was adults only but that is not the case children are now allowed. I won't be booking through Emirates Holidays again.Date of experience: March 29, 2025Good flights, well equipped planes in excellent condition. The staff ran out of food choices, both for breakfast and lunch. The staff at every point on our journey were amazing.Data doświadczenia: 17 marca 2025Thanks to Emirates my friend and I thoroughly enjoyed ourselves celebrating my 60th in Dubai.
