

Click Here

When exporting goods, there's a lot to consider. From choosing between air freight, land freight or sea freight to finding a packing company, preparing export documents, and applying for packing credit, it can be overwhelming. But don't worry, John Pipe International is here to help! With over 60 years of experience in the industry, we've seen it all - from sending small items to Qatar to large machines to Antarctica. We've got the expertise to ensure your goods arrive safely and on time. One crucial document that's often a source of concern for exporters is the packing list. This itemized list keeps track of the cargo as it moves from one destination to another, providing vital information like weights, dimensions, and more. As an exporter, you're required to provide a detailed export packing list when shipping goods overseas. Our team can assist with this process, or we can answer any questions you may have. In this article, we'll break down what details you need to include on your export packing list, so you can breathe easy knowing your shipment is in good hands.

1. Date of shipment
2. Shipper contact information
3. Consignee contact information
4. Origin address of cargo
5. Destination address of cargo
6. Total number of packages within this shipment
7. Detailed description of each package
8. Volume and weight of each package

Export packing involves using specialized materials and techniques to protect goods during international shipment, utilizing durable wrapping, cushioning, and strong containers that can withstand long transit times and handling across different modes of transport. A comprehensive export packing list includes detailed information about the contents, such as type, quantity, weight of each item, and total number of boxes or crates. This clarity enables quick identification and retrieval of shipment data. For a well-structured format, it is essential to ensure that the information is clear and concise, allowing relevant parties to access necessary details efficiently. Utilizing available free export packing list templates can serve as an effective starting point, providing a standard reference for shipping goods internationally. It's also important to note that export packing companies, such as John Pipe International, offer assistance with creating lists and addressing questions, ensuring a smooth process. Key aspects of export packing include the use of specialized materials and techniques, durable wrapping and cushioning, strong containers, and proper crate design. A well-executed packing list should contain essential details about shipment contents, quantity, weight, and total boxes or crates, enabling swift identification and retrieval of information. A comprehensive packing list serves as a crucial tool for exporters, shipping companies, and customs officials to ensure accurate handling, compliance with export regulations, and liability purposes. The following table illustrates the structure and key features of an export packing list, comprising ten exemplary items.

Item	Description	Quantity	Weight (kg)	Dimensions (cm)
1	Widget Model A	100	150	20 x 15 x 10
2	Gadget Type B	50	75	12 x 8 x 6
3	Gizmo Variant C	75	100	18 x 12 x 8
4	Tool Kit	10	50	30 x 20 x 15
5	Equipment Spare Parts	200	120	Variable sizes
6	Instruction Manuals	300	20	25 x 18 x 5
7	Packaging Materials	N/A	30	N/A
8	Machine Component X	20	200	40 x 30 x 25
9	Electronic Device Y	150	100	15 x 10 x 5
10	Hardware Supplies	500	50	Variable sizes
11	Furniture Parts	50	300	50 x 40 x 30
12	Glassware	75	80	Variable sizes
13	Clothing Items	200	150	Variable sizes
14	Food Items	100	50	Variable sizes
15	Stationery Supplies	300	25	Variable sizes

Additional reminders include:

- * Ensure accurate records for each item in the list.
- * Regularly update item details to reflect changes or additions.
- * Retain a copy of this list for future reference or verification.
- * Comply with international trade and shipping regulations.
- * Consider handling and packaging instructions to minimize damage or loss during transit.

[List templates available at Template.net]

Export invoice and packing list format in excel. Packing list in excel format. Example of a packing list for export. Packing list export. Excel sheet packing list. Excel packing list. Export packing list format.